

Crystal Therapy Council
CTC Policy for Disclosure and Barring Service Checks 2016

Background

The Crystal Therapy Council (CTC) recognises the relevant legislation that is in place to protect young people and vulnerable adults.

To this end CTC will advise that all schools registered with CTC have their criminal records checked by adhering to the “Disclosure” procedure.

- any school registered with CTC that is assessing applicants’ suitability for positions which are included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order using criminal record checks processed through the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), CTC complies fully with the code of practice and undertakes to treat all applicants for positions fairly

- CTC undertakes not to discriminate unfairly against any subject of a criminal record check on the basis of a conviction or other information revealed

- CTC can only ask an individual to provide details of convictions and cautions that CTC are legally entitled to know about. Where a DBS certificate at either standard or enhanced level can legally be requested (where the position is one that is included in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 as amended, and where appropriate Police Act Regulations as amended)

- CTC can only ask an individual about convictions and cautions that are not protected

- CTC is committed to the fair treatment of its staff, potential staff or users of its services, regardless of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, responsibilities for dependants, age, physical/mental disability or offending background

- CTC actively promotes equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills and potential and welcome applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records

- an application for a criminal record check is only submitted to DBS after a thorough risk assessment has indicated that one is both proportionate and relevant to the position concerned. For those positions where a criminal record check is identified as necessary, all application forms, job adverts and recruitment briefs will contain a statement that an application for a DBS certificate will be submitted in the event of the individual being offered the position

- at interview, or in a separate discussion, CTC ensures that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or other matter that might be relevant to the position. Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to withdrawal of an offer of employment
- CTC makes every subject of a criminal record check submitted to DBS aware of the existence of the code of practice and makes a copy available on request
- CTC undertakes to discuss any matter revealed on a DBS certificate with the individual seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.
